

Eticor Certificate Certified Sustainable Company

Companies that have implemented ESG-relevant legal modules in their compliance management software Eticor can be awarded the Certified Sustainable Company certificate from Eticor.

This certificate demonstrates a company's commitment to optimizing its ESG compliance strategy and meeting the requirements of human rights, as well as ethical and environmental standards in its business area

Fields of application

PR & Communication

Demonstrate your commitment to ESG compliance by integrating the certificate in your sustainability report, on your website or in your marketing materials.

Proof for your suppliers & partners

Use the certificate as proof that your company has integrated high standards with regard to the environment, working conditions and ethical behavior into your corporate strategy

Support for public contracts

The certificate strengthens the evidence that you meet ESG compliance requirements - a prerequisite for participation in public tenders in many countries.

Advantages for your company

1. Proof of sustainability

Use the certificate as proof of your commitment to a legally compliant organization in the area of ESG compliance.

2. Competitive advantage

Differentiate yourself from the competition with your certification and win new customers who value sustainable business practices.

3. Attractiveness for investors & banks

Impress investors and banks with your focus on ESG compliance and secure easier access to sustainable financing and investments.

4. Saving resources

Save time by showing the certificate, which can make it easier for you to complete extensive supplier self-disclosures. In addition, presenting the certificate increases the probative value of the information you provide.

5. Enhanced reputation

Improve your public perception and strengthen your brand in the long term by proving with our certificate that your company is committed to ESG principles.

6. More transparency

Use the optimally integrated LEI number to clearly identify your company in international business transactions and increase transparency and trust with your stakeholders.
